

Gaudi Tour

The tour starts on the Passeig de Gracia with a visit to either Gaudi's Casa Batlló or the Pedrera with its futuristic roof top and breathtaking views across the city. Your guide will explain the history of these two magnificent Gaudi houses which will help you to understand the architects mind, give you an insight into the bygone way of life and how his influence has shaped many of the buildings you see today in Barcelona.

Finally the tour will take you the Gaudi's unfinished masterpiece the Sagrada Familia, Holy Temple. By popular demand and support of the people of Barcelona construction continues and the engineers are still following the original Gaudi designs 120 years after it all first began.
